SALGA CONVENES A PROVINCIAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (PEC) MEETING IN KIMBERLEY

The Provincial Executive Committee (PEC) of SALGA in Northern Cape is set to sit on the 15th of February 2023 at the organisation's provincial offices in Kimberley, Northern Cape.

The meeting is scheduled to start at 09h00 and is the first meeting in the year 2023, occurring at on the back-foot of a successful Provincial Members Assembly held in Port Nolloth last year on 1 & 2 December.

The PEC is charged with exercising the authority of SALGA in between the Provincial Conferences and the Provincial Members Assembly. It acts in accordance to all the directions and resolutions of these congregations.

Like any other executive authority, central to the meeting's discussion will be taking stock of progress made in as far as the plans of the current financial year as it heads to a wrap, alignment of these achievements to the plans of the upcoming financial year including implementation of PMA resolutions. This will be done through tabling of Provincial Performance Reports which will be a tool to gauge performance in line with the key performance areas as reflected in the organisation's annual performance and operational overall plans.

Members of the media who wish to arrange an interview showing interest to this meeting are encouraged to contact the Communications and Marketing Officer of SALGA in the province on the details below:
