SALGA and NCOP to host Local Government Week in Cape Town (08 – 10 May 2018)

The South African Local Government Association (SALGA) and the National Council of Provinces (NCOP) will jointly host a three-day (08 – 10 May) Local Government Week (LGW) in Cape Town, Parliament. The overall theme for the LGW is “Land Use: Towards Integrated Spatial Planning” and heralds numerous papers and discussions which will characterize the scheduled debates during the week.

The aim of the LGW is to ensure that the three spheres of the government plan together and operate in harmony. The LGW is one way of bringing the three spheres together in order to debate matters relating to the local sphere of government and to seek solutions to challenges affecting the local sphere within the context of co-operative government and inter-governmental relations.
